

TOP TIPS FOR ADOPTERS

Check the pet suits your lifestyle

To maximise your chances of success, only commit to the pet/s that match your lifestyle and the level of commitment you're able to offer.

Get the right paperwork

Make sure you ask the rehomer for the details of the pet's current vet, their vaccination records, microchip details, flea and worming treatments, and any other relevant paperwork.

Ask a lot of questions

Asking the rehomer lots of questions is another great way to ensure you have selected the right pet and make sure you can give them everything they need.

Be sensitive & respectful towards the rehomer

For most people, giving up a pet for adoption is heart-breaking. Please bear this in mind when you're chatting to a rehomer. Don't contact them once you've taken your new pet home – speak to us first.

We can offer post post-adoption support if you need it.

Checklist

See the next page for important considerations before you complete your adoption.

CHECKLIST for Cat Adopters

Before Taking the Pet Home

Health

Yes No

- Have I physically checked the cat over?
- Does s/he have any potential health issues that I need to ask about?
- If yes, have I requested and obtained the previous vet history?
- Have I seen any vet records or vaccination/ microchip/ neutering information if applicable?

Suitability

Yes No

- Am I sure the cat is a good fit for my household?
- Have I seen how the cat behaves when someone arrives at the home?
- Have I seen how the cat behaves around other cats (if applicable)?
- If I have another cat at home, am I sure that the cat will be OK with my cat?
- Have I double checked that the cat would suit my routine at home?

Children

Yes No

- If I have children at home, have I seen how the cat interacts with children?
- Have my children met the cat?

Exchange

Yes No

- Am I able to collect the cat in the time frame that works for their current owner?

Consideration

Yes No

- Do I have any doubts?
If yes, DO NOT TAKE THE CAT HOME on this occasion and make arrangements to visit again, or contact the PetRehomer team to discuss your concerns.

Remember...

When you take the pet home, s/he becomes yours, and you are the new owner. PetRehomer can provide post-adoption advice and support. We are here to help, and can assist with most problems, but we can't take the cat into our care if it doesn't work out. Note that refunds will not be given if you change your mind after the adoption has completed.

How to PREPARE for your new cat:

Pre arrival:

7 things you must do:

1. Create safe spaces
2. Set up a litter tray or outside toilet
3. Stock up on the right food
4. Get a scratch post
5. Plan for holidays
6. Register with a vet
7. Settling in your new cat
